-THE DIVINE LIFE SOCIETY

INTRODUCTION

The attainment of God-realisation is the goal of human life. Great seers, saints and sages have been from time immemorial voicing this truth and striving to spread the gospel of God-realisation in different ways, through books, speeches, heart-to-heart talks, etc. And exactly it is to remind man of his Goal, and to show him the path that leads to it that this book 'Adhyatma Yoga' is dedicated.

The first chapter of this book deals with the nature of God. The second chapter throws light on the concept of religion. Various subjects connected with philosophy are discussed in the next chapter. The fourth chapter raises the clarion call to Sadhana, pointing out to man the false, perishable nature of the world, and the glory and sublimity of a life in Spirit. The fifth chapter is rich in profuse instructions to aspirants on their path of Sadhana, and will be treasured by all earnest aspirants. Formulas for Vedantic meditation are given in the sixth chapter. The seventh chapter, containing a series of addresses made to the mind and senses will be found highly useful by all Sadhaks, as it throws much light on how to coax and cajole the riotous mind and senses. The path of devotion is dealt with in chapter VIII, and the glory of Divine Name is described in chapter IX. In this age of hatred and dissension, the message of love alone will be the saving factor, and a full chapter (viz. chapter X) is devoted to a discussion of 'Love' and its infinite potencies. Sadhana, to be successful, has to be done under the guidance of a Guru. The glory and need of Guru are dealt with in chapter XI. Chapter XII gives out the experiences of a Sage of Realisation,—the experiences which are the Sadhak's ideal. A description of the characteristics of a saint is given in chapter XIII. Chapter XIV is a highly interesting treatise on a wide variety of subjects, and thinkers and intellectuals will immensely like the thoughts contained in this chapter. Definitions, from a spiritual angle, of different things and phenomena are given in chapter XV. A description of woman, the spiritual helpmate of man, is given in chapter XVI. Chapters XVII and XVIII respectively convey valuable lessons through humour and stories. The concluding chapter deals with the means of acquiring health and long life, so very essential for attaining God-realisation.

It is hoped that all aspirants will make the best use of this book, by studying it and putting the teachings into actual practice.

May Lord bless you all.

A Lame man sat

On the shoulders of a blind man.

Joins with the lame intelligent Purusha.

Creation starts.

There is movement or creation.

The blunt iron pieces move

Towards the potential magnet.

This is movement.

2. Cause of This World

One man says,

Brahman is the Cause of this world;

Another man says,

Maya is the cause;

A third man says;

Jiva is the cause;

A fourth man says,

Atom is the Cause;

A fifth man says,

Ether is the Cause;

A sixth man says,

Air, or fire or water is the Cause;

A seventh man says,

Mind is the Cause-

Mano Matra Jagat-

Mano Kalpita Jagat-

In reality there is no world,

Brahman alone is!

Stone sleeps.

Plant breathes.

Animal moves.

You died an animal

And became a man.

You died a man

And became a sage.

The lamp burns

So long there are wick and oil.

Even so there is mind

So long there are Vasanas and thoughts are destroyed

Jivahood vanishes.

The mind is absorbed in Brahman.

Jiva becomes one with the Absolute.

6. Jiva Is Brahman

A spark is only fire.

A wave or bubble is only water.

A ring or bracelet is only gold.

The prince is only future king.

Even so the Jiva or the individual

Is only Para Brahman or the Absolute.

7. Inner Illumination

When one attains

Inner Illumination

When he realises his Atman

He attains perfection,

He attains Atma Sakshatkara,

He attains his fullest expression,

He becomes Immortal.

8. Oneness

Camphor melts

And becomes identical with the fire.

River joins the ocean

And becomes one with the ocean.

A lump of salt or sugar dissolves

And becomes one with the ocean.

Even so mind melts

In the fire of wisdom

And becomes one with the Supreme Self.

The individual soul or Jiva

Becomes identical with the Supreme Soul.

9. All Are Equal

One soul abides in all.

There is one humanity.

There is one Brotherhood.

There is one Atma-hood.

None is high.

None is low.

All are equal.

Vain are the distinctions.

Man-made barriers

Should be ruthlessly broken down.

Then alone there will be peace

In this world.

10. Why Do You Not Weep?

When a man is weeping

You ask him, “Why are you weeping?”

You do not ask a man

“Why do you not weep?”

Weeping is illusory

Weeping is born of ignorance

Weeping

Is not one's real nature

Bliss alone is one's essential nature

Bliss is Brahman or the Eternal

“Thu art Brahman”, “Tat Tvam Asi”,

Realise Brahman and be free.

11. Jnana or Wisdom

Give up Ahamta-Mamata

I-ness and Mine-ness

Behold the Atman in all

Behold thy Self as the All,

Behold thy Self as the world

This is Jnana or wisdom.

12. No Samadhi But Jnana

For a Vedantin

Samadhi has no value.

It is the opposite state of Vikshepa.

He wants only Jnana.

He praises only Jnana

The wisdom of the Absolute

Which is beyond Vikshepa and Samadhi

Satyam jnanam Anantam Brahman.

13. Disease and Remedy

Hunger is kind of disease

Food is the remedy.

Thirst is another kind of disease

Water is the remedy.

Death is a kind of dire disease

Brahma Jnana is the remedy.

14. Ignorance Is a Dire Disease

Ignorance is a dire disease;

Raga-Dvesha is an awful disease;

Egoism is a terrible malady;

Attachment is a formidable disease;

Birth-death is a terrible malady;

The only remedy for all these is wisdom of Atman!

15. Ego is the seed of this Samsara

Intellect is the sprout

Thoughts are the branches

Kill the ego through surrender or Enquiry

Meditate on the Supreme Self

The whole tree of Samsara

Will be cut down

You will attain Self-realisation.

16. Three of Life

Truth is the root of the tree life

Truth is Para Brahman

Truth is the Absolute

This tree of life is nourished by Karmas

The Gunas are its trunk

Vasanas are its branches

Pleasure and pain are its fruits

Cut this Mayaic tree

Through the sword of dispassion

And merge yourself in Brahman.

17. Secret of Renunciation

The three Ishanas bind you

They are the desire

For son, wealth, and name and fame,

You can renounce wife, son and wealth,

But it is difficult to renounce name and fame.

If you renounce egoism,

All the Ishanas will perish.

The secret of renunciation is

Renunciation of egoism.

18. Pain

Pain is born ignorance

Pain is due to identification with the body

Pain is extraneous to you

It is not thy essential nature

Thy essential nature is Bliss.

When knowledge dawns pain vanishes

There is no pain in deep sleep

There is no pain when you are under chloroform

Pain manifests when mind is attached to the body

If the mind perishes there is no pain.

19. Cause of Pain and Sorrow

Craving is the cause for birth and death,

Craving is born of memory of pleasure,

Memory of pleasure is born of contact with sense objects.

Contact causes attachment,

Attachment is born of non-discrimination,

Non-discrimination is born of ignorance;

Annihilate ignorance;

All the links will be broken at once.

20. Remove the Veil of Ignorance

When there is cloud

You cannot see the sun

But the sun is there.

When the cloud disappears

You can see the sun clearly

Even so when the veil of ignorance is torn asunder

Through meditation and enquiry

You can realise God or Atman.

21. Attain Illumination

Bring a lamp

Darkness vanishes

Bring a lamp

The rope snake disappears

Trembling ceases

Fear takes its heels.

Even so attain the light of knowledge of Self,

The darkness of ignorance will vanish

Fear, pain, sorrow, delusion will disappear.

22. Through Mind Man Suffers

Place a red flower before a crystal

The crystal appears red

Even so the pure blissful Atman

Appears to be miserable or happy

Through contact with the mind.

The Jiva identifies himself

With the mind, Prana, senses and body

And therefore feels pain and pleasure.

When the red flower is removed

The crystal is again pure white

When the Upadhi mind is destroyed

Man becomes one with the All-blissful Atman.

23. Pull Down the Dividing Wall

This dividing wall is not made of bricks.

There is neither cement nor lime here.

It is not built by a mason.

It is more firm than Ferro concrete slab.

This is dividing wall between man and soul.

This dividing wall is mind.

It is made up of Vasanas and egoism.

Annihilate Vasanas and egoism.

This wall break to pieces.

You will shine in divine glory and effulgence.

24. Seat of Mind

According to Hatha Yoga School

Trikuti is the seat of mind.

Trikuti is the space between the two eyebrows.

According to Vedanta

Right eye is the seat of mind during waking state.

Hita Nadi in the throat is the seat of the mind

During dreaming state.

Puritat Nadi in the heart

Is the seat of mind during deep sleep?

25. Waking Versus Dreaming

There is continuity in the waking state,

But there is no such continuity in the dreaming state.

You see the same things in the waking state,

But it is not so in the dreaming state.

The experience of dreaming persons differs.

The subject and object are different

In the waking state.

In the dream mind is the subject

Mind is the object.

26. The World Is a Long Dream

A man dreams

That his head is cut.

He weeps bitterly.

When he awakes

He stops crying.

Even so when one attains Brahma Jnana

This world vanishes.

This world is only a long dream.

27. Dream

In dream one who has taken sumptuous meal

Feels very hungry.

In dream one feels that his head has been cut

And cries bitterly.

One moves to London from Madras and comes back

Within half an hour.

One sees vision of mountains, rivers

Chariots, ocean and houses.

The small brain cannot contain all these.

Dream becomes false

When one wakes up.

This world becomes false

When one attains Turiya or Illumination.

28. Ideas and Feelings Differ

For one man

A woman is his wife;

The same woman is mother for another;

The same woman is sister for another;

The same woman is grandmother for another;

The same woman is aunt for another;

The same woman is sister in law for another;

The same woman is niece for another;

The woman is the same;

But idea and feelings differ.

It is all Maya and her work.

Mind is Maya.

But Brahman is One and the Same.

There are no ideas here.

There is neither difference nor destruction.

Realise Brahman and be free.

29. Object and Idea

For every object there is an idea.

There cannot be any idea without object

Object and idea are inseparable.

Annihilate the ideas-Chitta Vritti Nirodha;

The world of objects will vanish.

Brahman alone will remain.

That Brahman thou art, O Ram!

30. Jiva Srishti and Isvara Srishti

Jiva is individual soul

Isvara is Lord

Srishti is Creation.

Isvara has created water, fire, earth, etc.

The world of ideas is Jiva Srishti.

You can destroy the world of ideas

Isvara Srishti is beneficial for the Jiva

Jiva Srishti binds the soul.

31. Life Experience-“I”

Life here is experience

It is experience through the senses

The experience hangs on “I”

One says, “I see, I hear, I eat, I know”

Without “I there is no experience

This experience is transitory and illusory,

But the experience which is eternal

It is life in the eternal

It is infinite, changeless and divine.

32. See without eyes

Meditate on Brahman.

Rest in Chaitanya or Brahman.

Or Absolute consciousness.

You can see without eyes.

Hear without ears.

Smell without a nose.

Taste without a tongue.

Walk without feet.

Grasp without hands.

Feel without skin.

33. I am

Man says:

I am sick

I am fatty

I am black

I am fair

I am an Indian

I am an Australian

I am blind

“I am” “is the only Truth

“I am” “I exist” is the only Reality.

Existence is the only Reality.

Existence is Consciousness-Bliss

“Sick” “fatty” etc. are illusory.

34. False and Real ‘I’

Egoism is the false small ‘I’

It is the illusory little ‘I’

It has no real existence.

Brahman is the infinite ‘I’

Brahman is the real big ‘I’

Brahman alone really exists.

Realise Brahman and be free.

35. You are Distinct from the Senses

Even if your hand is cut

‘I’ remains.

Even if your eye is removed

‘I’ remains.

Even if your leg is cut

‘I’ remains.

You are not the Indriyas or the senses.

You are distinct from the senses.

You are distinct from the body.

You are distinct from the mind and Prana also.

You are in essence identical with Brahman.

You are pure consciousness-Bliss.

36. You Are Witness or Atman

You say

“My mind is not alright

I cannot work now.”

This indicates you are distinct

From the mind, You are the witness of the mind.

The witness of the mind is Atman.

You are in reality Atman or the Soul.

37. Sakshi Is Always Calm

The water is agitated.

The reflection of sun is agitated.

But the sun remains firm.

Even so the Jiva is agitated

Through the Upadhi, Antahkarana (mind)

But the Sakshi (the witness) remains always serene.

38. Brahman Is the Witness

In front of a lamp

You can do forgery

You can write a spiritual book

You can study Gita

But the lamp stands as a witness.

It is not affected a bit.

Even so is Brahman or the Absolute.

It is a silent witness

It is not in the least affected,

By pleasure and pain, good and evil.

39. The Two Drivers

In a car there are two drivers

One drives the car.

The other is simply seated in the back seat.

The driver was punished for rash driving.

The other driver was a silent witness.

He was not affected in any way.

Even so in this body there are two drivers

One driver Jiva reaps the fruits of his actions.

He is egoistic and feels I am doer and enjoyer.

He laughs sometimes and cries at other time.

But the other driver is a witness.

He is ever joyful. He is not touched by pleasure and pain.

The other driver is Brahman.

40. Brahman Is Unattached

Air carries fragrance as well as bad odour.

It is not affected by them even a bit.

It is Asanga unattached.

So is Brahman.

Sun shines on rose and excreta

It is not affected by them.

So is Brahman.

41. The Soul Is Untainted

The sun is not affected by the clouds

Or the defects of the eye

The sky is not affected by the air
Or the lightning or the thunder-storm
The wind is not affected
Bu the sweet aroma or bad odour
The crystal is not affected
By the colour of the objects placed before it
The ether is not affected by pleasure and pain,
Virtue and vice, health and disease,
Name and fame, honour and dishonor,
Like and dislike longevity and death.
The Soul is ever immortal and unaffected.
Man is essentially identical with the Soul.

42. Upadhi Gives Form

Fire in the wood has no form
But it takes the form of any objects it burns.

It becomes small and big.

Water takes the form

Of the vessel in which it is placed

It also becomes small and big

Even so Brahman is formless.

It assumes form through Upadhi

Or limiting adjunct, body and mind.

43. Develop Intuition

Reason and logic will not help you

To attain Self-realisation;

Intellect is a finite and frail instrument.

Reason can work within time-space.

But Atma is beyond time, and space.

Intuition alone can know the Atma.

Therefore give up arguing and logical chopping;

Develop intuition through meditation.

44. Requisites for Attaining Knowledge

Reverence for the Teacher.

Freedom from greed.

Eagerness to hear

Shedding off laziness.

Patience and perseverance.

Application and tenacity.

These are indispensable

For the acquisition of knowledge.

45. What Is Sattwa?

Sattwa is purity

Sattwa is harmony

Sattwa is peace

Sattwa is illumination

Sattwa is light

Sattwa is wisdom

Sattwa is spiritual microscope

To find out subtle existences

To find out God

To detect super-sensual facts

To probe into the divine mysteries.

Anger acts as a boomerang

Because it injures the man

Who becomes angry?

It comes back to the angry man,

And does harm to him.

Therefore control anger

By Kshama, love, enquiry and service.

47. Force of Karma

Nala did not want to go to the forest

And yet he was forced to go

His Karma compelled him.

Lord Rama alone was to be installed king of Ayodhya,

He was forced to enter the forest.

Gandhiji wanted to live for 120 years

He did not like himself to be shot down

And yet Karma brought this event.

48. Karmas and Samskaras

Lotus and leech are born from the same Source

Nectar and poison came out

From the churning of the ocean

Even so a good son and a wicked son

Are born of the same parents

Karmas and Samskaras are responsible for this.

49. A Sage Is Not Bound By Karmas

A sage is not bound by Karmas

Because he has no egoism

No Moha or infatuation

No attachment, no Asakti.

No desires or expectation of fruits

No identification with body, mind or senses.

50. A Deva

A Deva is a celestial being

His body is brilliant

It is made up of more fire

He has no hunger or thirst

He has no disease

He moves in celestial car

He has no shadow

He never winks

His feet do not touch the ground.

51. Life in Heaven

The denizen of Swarga or Heaven

Is free from disease, hunger and thirst

He has long life,

He moves in celestial cars or Viman

There are Apsaras to serve him.

He enjoys Divya Bhoga.

But there are jealousy and hatred in him,

He fights and quarrels.

When the fruits of his virtuous actions are exhausted

He comes back to this world.

52. Asuras in the Body

The senses are the Asuras.

Asuras are demons.

They are enemies of Atma.

They stand in the way of Self-realisation.

They cause distraction.

Evil Vasanas are also Asuras.

Lust, greed, egoism are evil Vasanas.

Subha Vasanas are the gods.

They help the aspirant to attain Moksha.

Divine virtues are subha Vasanas.

Slay the evil Vasanas through good Vasanas.

Always generate good tendencies.

53. The Three Saktis

Will is Ichcha Sakti

Desires is Ichcha Sakti

Prana is Kriya Sakti

Action is Kriya Sakti

Knowledge is Jnana Sakti.

Chapter Four

CALL TO SADHANA

1. You Came Alone

You came alone

You will go alone

You came weeping

You will go weeping

You came with empty hands

You will go with empty hands

Be virtuous, serve, love, give

Be dispassionate, be detached,

Enquire, meditate and realise.

2. Struggle On

Struggle on, O man!

Undaunted

In the face of all obstacles

In the battle of daily life

Be bold.

Do not stumble

Boldly bear all the troubles

March forward! O hero

Take refuge in the Lord

All sorrows will vanish

You will attain eternal bliss.

3. None Is Poor

O Ram! none is poor

Everyone has priceless Atmic pearl⁷²

In his bundle

In the cave of his heart

But how to open the knot

He does not know

And therefore he is poor

Open the three knots of A.K.K.

Avidya, Kama, Karma

And attain the supreme wealth or Atma.

4. Individual Life a Phantom

The individual life is but a phantom,

It is full of pain, disappointment,

Cares, worries and fears,

It is closed and lost in darkness and despair

It is but a walking shadow.

It is a leather bag of impurities.

It is a pot of mud.

Abandon infatuation for the body.

Realise the self-luminous eternal Atman.

5. God Is With You

God is with you,

God is within you,

God is behind you,

God is before you,

God is beside you,

God is beneath you,

God is above you

To comfort and save you,

Love Him and be happy.

6. Chinta Consumes Everything

Chinta is anxiety- worry

If one Chinta is over

Another Chinta is waiting immediately.

There is Chinta for food

When you get food

There is Chinta for clothing

When you get clothing

There is Chinta for marriage and house.

When you get that

There is Chinta for son.

A millionaire has Chinta

For becoming a multimillionaire.

There is no end for Chinta

No one save a sage

Is free from Chinta.

Funeral pyre consumes only the body

But Chinta consumes everything

Take refuge in God and His name

All Chintas will vanish.

7. Pleasure Is Evanescent

Sensual pleasures are like bubbles.

They are like the fleeting lightning.

They are like the rainbow,

Which disappears quickly?

They are like the rose,

Which fades in a minute.

But the bliss of Brahman is eternal.

Therefore realise this Infinite Bliss.

8. Optical Illusion

A straight stick appears to be bent

Underneath water.

The two parallel lines of a railway

Appear to meet at a distance.

One man sees two moons

A tower at a distance looks very small

When you come very near

The vision is quite different.

When you stand at its base

You cannot see the top of the tower,

This is all a play of the optical lens,

It is all Maya's trick.

The senses dupe and delude you.

Seek the immortal Seer behind the eye

Transcend all Maya's illusion and delusion

Attain the saving wisdom of the Self.

9. Seek Anandalaya

In Vastralaya, cloth shop

You will get only clothes,

In Pustakalaya, book shop

You will get only books.

This world is Dukhalaya

You will get only pain.

Brahma is Anandalaya

Seek Brahman

And realise the bliss Immortal

10. Who Is Happy?

God Indra is not happy

An emperor is not happy

A dictator is not happy

A president of a state is not happy

Who is happy then?

A sage is happy

A Yogi is happy

He who has controlled his mind is happy

Glory to such Yogi and sage.

11. No one Is Happy in This World

A rich man has great wealth

But he has no children,

And so he is pained at heart.

A poor man has 14 children

But has nothing to eat

And so he is miserable.

One man has wealth and children

But his son is a vagabond

And so he is worried.

One man has riches and good sons

But his wife is very quarrelsome

No one save a sage is happy in this world.

12. Emptiness of Wealth

Can gold give you everlasting peace?

Can gold give you freedom and bliss?

Can you dig wisdom from the mine?

Wealth begets pride

Wealth causes restlessness.

Wealth stiffens egoism

Wealth is the enemy of devotion

Wealth is the root of all evils

Attain the inexhaustible spiritual wealth

The supreme wealth of wisdom of the Self

And be happy for ever.

13. Be Quiet and Know

O! Man, You are heir apparent to God,

Rejoice, Rejoice,

You are not bound,

Praise Him,

From whom all blessings flow,

He fills your whole being,

Be still, be quiet and know.

14. Count Not the Doors of Buckingham Palace

People want to count

The doors of Buckingham palace.

They do not wish to count their own doors in their own houses.

They are curiosity-mongers.

What will they gain by counting the doors?

Will that give them eternal bliss?

Will that bestow upon them wisdom of Atma?

Will that give them liberation?

O deluded man! O Ignorant soul!

Enquire, discover, recover;

And be happy for ever.

15. The Educated Fool

The educated fool always thinks of the body

He goes to the club, drinks

And wastes his money, time and energy

He plays cards, and reads novels

He speaks ill of saints

He has no faith in scriptures

"Philosophy of flesh" appeals to him

He worships the body and mammon

He takes the body as Atma

He has neither discrimination nor dispassion

He does not make enquiry of "Who am I?"

He worships his wife

The world abounds with such fools.

16. O Deluded Fool!

Look not at the face for enjoying beauty

Look within.

And realise the Beauty of beauties

Do not run after little sensual pleasures

They are illusory and fleeting.

Dive deep in the hear

And realise the eternal bliss of Atma.

17. Admonition

O deluded man,

You have given up reciting Lord's Name

But you have not given up telling lies.

You have given up study of Gita

But you have not given up injuring others.

You have given up meditation

But you have not given up anger and lust

You have given up prayer and service

But you have not given up greed and pride,

Wake up now and become virtuous.

18. Analysis of Your Daily Activities

Cooking

Eating

Drinking

Sleeping

Procreating

Gossiping

Vilifying

This is the analysis of your daily activities

What a deplorable state

O, Man, Serve, Love, Meditate, Realise.

19. A Poor Man and Shawl

A richman gave a costly shawl,

To a very poor man.

The poor man used it for wiping the feet.

The rich man took it back.

Even so the worldly minded man

Uses the body shawl for sensual pleasures.

Instead of utilising it for attaining Moksha.

The Lord will take back the human body.

And give him an animal body.

Keep the body healthy, pure and strong.

And use it for meditation.

And reach the goal in this very birth.

20. Value of Brahma Jnana

You may be a king, or an emperor

This is of no use

If you do not possess devotion and wisdom.

You may be an erudite scholar

You may have the eight Siddhis

You may be beautiful and strong

You may be a wonderful songster

You may know the sixty-four Kalas

You may be famous in the whole world

All these are of no avail

If you have no Brahma Jnana

Brahma Jnana alone can give you perfection.

21. Who Is Father?

Who is son?

Who is father?

And uncle who?

Who is mother?

God is your real father.

God is your real mother,

Know Him and be free

All illusory attachments

Will be broken down.

22. Atma—Basis for Everything

The Empire State Building in America

The tallest building in the world

Has 102 storeys and a height of 1250 feet.

The five sided Pentagon

The world's largest office building

Covers 34 acres, has 62.2

lakhs square feet floor space.

Friends! All are made up of earth and lime only.

They must perish today or tomorrow.

The only Majestic, infinite thing is your own Atma.

The basis for all building and this world.

Realise this Alma and rest peacefully for ever.

23. How Long?

How long do you like to be ignorant?

How long do you like to be passionate?

How long do you like to be proud and vain?

How long do you like to lead this deluded life?

How long do you wish to be a slave of senses?

Wake up from this long slumber of ignorance'

Purify, meditate and attain wisdom

And roam about happily.

24. Time and Timeless

Time is formless.

But it devours everything.

Time does not spare any body.

Time is relentless

Time is Lord Yama.

Time is a mode of the mind.

The Eternal is Timeless.

Brahman transcends time.

Attain Brahman and conquer time.

25. Precious Is Your Life

Precious is your life

Waste it not in sensual pleasures

Pursue not the shadows

Which come and go

Wander not after the mirage

God is now, here

He abides in your heart

Pray, sing and meditate

Drink the Divine Nectar

Be filled, be full.

26. Awake, O Man

Behold,

All are passing in this world,

All uncertain,

O, deluded man,

Awake, awake,

Think of Hari,

Except through Hari,

There is no hope for you.

27. Wake Up O Man

Are you really advancing?

Or are you falling

From a high spiritual state?

Institutions are declining.

Creeds are collapsing.

America is a victim

Of softness and luxury.

Europe has declined.

Atom bomb is God now

Industrialisation is God now.

People are sunk in deep materialism.

All have embraced the philosophy of flesh.

"Eat, drink and be merry"

Is the slogan of the day?

O man! Wake up from this long slumber of ignorance.

Realise Atma and be free.

28. Long Only for God

O man! Give up your bad habits

Long only for God,

Who is wisdom, bliss, love and peace.

Worship Lord's feet in the lotus of your heart

With faith, devotion and love

With eyes filled with tears

Plunge yourself in the ocean of bliss

Immerse yourself in the sea of joy.

29. Meet Thy Friend Now

He is eagerly waiting to meet you

You can trust this friend at any time

He will overlook thy faults

He is ever ready to help you

He will guide and protect you

He will give you light, peace and bliss

You can draw inspiration from Him

He is the Immortal Friend

He is Light of lights

He is omnipotent, Infinite.

He will make you Immortal.

30. Look Within

If you have ears to hear, hear

If you have eyes to see, see

If you have heart to feel, feel

If you have a mind to think, think

Shut the external instruments

Learn to look within

Develop the eye of intuition.

Rest in Satchidananda Atma

Enjoy the abiding peace of the Eternal.

31. Seek the Immortal

This world is a shadow

Its loves are unreal

Human love is hollow and shallow

Its objects are illusory

They are like a mirage

The objects are like bubbles

They come and go

Seek the Immortal

And attain eternal bliss.

32. Seek the Eternal—I

This body is a bubble

It is like lightning

This world is a play for two days

It lasts today

It continues tomorrow

No more, no more.

O deluded man!

Awake, Awake!

Seek the Eternal

Rest in the Satchidananda Atman.

33. Seek the Eternal—II

The bloom of rose.

The beauty of the skin,

The pomp of power,

The strength of a wrestler,
The wealth of a millionaire,
The grandeur of an emperor,
The fame of a songster,
The pride of a minister,
All pass away quickly,
Brahman alone endures forever.

Therefore seek Brahman, the Eternal Atman.

34. Seek the Eternal—III

It is not certain whether you will live today
Do not think that this e world is eternal
If you want to do good deeds do them now
Who knows what will happen tomorrow,
A doctor talks on the telephone
And dies on the steps when he goes upstairs.

Such is life's uncertainty here

Seek the Eternal

And be happy for ever.

35. Seek the Eternal—IV

And joined Lord Rama,

Prahlad abandoned his father

And worshipped Hari

And sang the glory of Giridhari

Gopies deserted their husbands

For the sake of Lord Krishna

Bharat left his mother

And worshipped the sandals of Sri Rama

Bali abandoned his Guru Sukracharya

They lost nothing thereby

They all attained Life Eternal

Renounce anything

That stands in the way of your God-realisation.

36. Seek the Changeless

One element can be changed into another

Mercury becomes gold

If one proton is lost

Uranium gives arsenic and iodine

Nitrogen can be changed into oxygen

Male is changed into a female

Female is changed into a male

This is all Maya

Maya can do anything

Change is Maya

Changelessness is Brahman

Trust not this changing world

Seek the changeless

Rest in the changeless Brahman

And be blissful for ever.

37. Know Thyself

O ignorant Jiva!

How long will you love vanity?

How long will you utter falsehood?

How long will you be selfish and jealous?

How long will you cheat others?

How long will you run after shadows?

How long will you be slave of mind and senses?

Wake up from the slumber of ignorance.

Know thyself and be free.

38. Realise the Truth

Truth is one,

Sages call it by various names,

Truth is Para Brahman,

Truth is the Absolute,

Truth alone triumphs

Truth is thy own Self or Atma.

Realise the Truth,

Truth will give you freedom.

39. Come Ye Young Ministers

Come ye young ministers, young judges

Young professors, young doctors,

With Vairagya, with spiritual Samskaras

With four means, with plenty of money

And join the Yoga Vedanta Forest University.

Be bold and take Sannyasa.

Study, meditate, realise,

And disseminate spiritual knowledge.

Then alone your life is blessed.

Waste not the precious life any more.

Enough of Iddali, Coffee and Parotta.

Cordial greetings, love and Pranams.

40. Come With Four

Come, come, do come

Who are weary in life?

Come ye all who are sorrow-laden

Who are bereaved and heart-broken

Who are tired of strife

Who are in despair

Come with four

Here all shall find eternal peace,
Permanent joy and bliss immortal.

41. Immortal Fruit

I have the fruit
That makes life fruitful and immortal
It is an Immortal fruit
That bestows perfection and freedom.
Within my heart
The tree of Brahman grows
That bears emancipation for its fruit
I eat this nectarine fruit
Come friends, join with me
And taste this divine fruit now.

42. Nectar Within You

Why do you wander, friend

When the Immortal Atma

Is within you?

Why do you wander?

From forest to forest

In search of what is within you?

Go where you will

To Badri, Cape

Where will you find the place

That will give you everlasting bliss?

The nectar of Immortality

Is within you.

Meditate and drink this nectar.

43. Body Is a Moving Temple

O man! Your body

Is a moving temple of God

Keep it pure

Your heart is Lord's castle.

A rich treasure lies in your heart,

It is the treasure of treasures.

It is supreme inexhaustible wealth.

Attain this priceless wealth

Through faith, devotion and meditation.

And be happy for ever.

44. Man into Woman

Christine Jorgensen

Formerly George Jorgensen 26 years old

The ex-American G I.

Was changed into a woman

After a series of plastic operations

And hormone treatment in a Copenhagen Hospital.

He had 2000 injections in 2 ¼ years

The body developed curves, the bust grew

Skin and muscles became softer

The beard gradually disappeared.

He wore woman's clothes

The handwriting altered considerably

He had feminine hips

He used powder, lipstick and perfume.

In my opinion the complete change

From a man into a woman

Or vice versa is an impossibility.

Only when there are ovaries and uterus

Can one speak of female organs?

And change from man into a woman.

What is the benefit of this change after all?

Tata Kim Tata Kim Tata Kim

Can this give eternal bliss?

This is Maya's another trick or fraud

Change yourself into Brahman

Through devotion, enquiry and meditation

No plastic operation or hormone injection is necessary for this

You will enjoy immortal bliss.

45. Woman into Man

B. K. B. is endeavouring

To change her sex.

She wants to become a man

And to marry the girl whom she loves

She wants to do a man's job.

What a strange craving!

This is Kali.

Moha is intense (Athi Moha).

This is a very strange world

Maya havocs in a variety of ways

Mind havocs in a diverse manner.

Sex is an illusory thing

This is an illusory world

There is no permanent satisfaction here.

Man wants to become a woman

And woman wants to become a man.

Foolishness, stupidity, ignorance.

Attain the sexless, changeless, Brahman

Here alone you will find eternal satisfaction.

46. Finite Implies Infinite

Finite implies Infinite.

Change implies changelessness.

Effect implies cause.

Law implies law-giver.

Brahman is Infinite, changeless and causeless.

Realise the changeless Infinite

And be happy for ever.

47. Tap the Source

There is a light that never dims

There is a beauty that never fades

There is a drink that immortalises

There is a silence which is ever eloquent

There is a friend who is eternal

There is a peace which ever comforts

There is a bliss that never decays

There is a realm which is boundariless

There is a life eternal, which is ever joyful

It is Atma, thy innermost Self, Indweller,

The Source of all creations.

They resist, persist and recur.

A Dheera or spiritual hero alone

With patience, perseverance and vigilance

Can attain triumph.

Pray and attain God's grace.

Without God's grace

You cannot make even an iota of spiritual progress

Sadhana Shakti is God's Grace

Guru is God's Grace

Sadhana and comfort are God's Grace.

17. Dwell in the One

Always remember the One.

Recognise the one.

Ring in the wisdom of the sage.

Ring out worldliness and selfishness

Ring in the Music of life Divine.

Ring out unrighteousness

Ring in righteousness.

Ring out thoughts of jealousy

Ring in thoughts sublime and divine.

21. Forms of Hatred

Jealousy is hatred

Anger is hatred

Ghrina is hatred

Irsha is hatred

Matsarya is hatred

Asuya is hatred

Remove hatred through love,
Prayer, Japa, service and meditation

22. Slay the Evil

Slay the evil that is in your eye

So that the eye cannot see evil

So that the mind cannot think evil

Slay the evil that is in your hand

So that the hand cannot do evil.

Slay the evil that is in your feet

So that the feet cannot walk after evil.

23. Greed Is Kali

Wherever there is greed

There are untruth, hypocrisy, selfishness,

Cunningness, theft, violence, injustice.

Misappropriation, fraud and forgery.

Greed is Kali

The desire to take other's property is Kali

Greed is an enemy of peace

Abandon greed through magnanimity,

Charity, generosity and integrity and contentment

And rest peacefully forever in Atma.

24. Slay the Three `K' s

Slay the three 'K' s

Kamini, Kanchana, and Kirti:

Lust, gold and fame.

They are the three Ishanas.

Sthree Ishana, Vitheshana and Loka Ishana.

It is very difficult to slay the desire for Kirti.

Plod on, strive and strive

You will succeed eventually.

25. Three Obstacles to Spiritual Progress

Self-sufficiency, self-justification

And self-assertive Rajasic nature

Are the three important obstacles to spiritual progress.

The aspirant falsely imagines

That he has reached the goal

That he is a great realised Yogin

That he knows everything in Yoga.

He has false Tushti or contentment

He stops his Sadhana.

He does not want to hear anything

From great sages and saints.

Self-justification is a very dangerous habit.

The aspirant has done serious mistakes.

When his mistakes are pointed out

He argues and justifies himself.

He wants not to be corrected by others

He asserts himself at every step.

He is egoistic and self-seeking

He fights and quarrels

He says, "Do you know who I am?"

He wants to lord over all.

26. Break and Construct

The peasant breaks the soil first

Then he puts manure

Afterwards he sows the seed and waters

In the end he reaps a rich harvest,

Even so, you should break first

All old evil habits and evil traits,
Then you should develop divine virtues.
You should practise meditation.
Then alone you will reap the harvest
Of Samadhi, eternal bliss and everlasting peace.

27. Fry the Vasanas

If the seed is fried
It cannot sprout forth.
Even so if the Vasanas or desires are fried
There will be no rebirth.
If the branches are cut
The tree will yet grow.
If the root is eradicated
The tree will totally perish.
Even to if egoism is totally rooted out
There will be no rebirth.

You will be in union with the Lord.

28. Manorajya

Manorajya is building castles in the air

It is Vikshepa or tossing of mind.

This is due to Rajas.

Do Vichara, Japa, Tratak,

Kirtan, meditation, worship,

Pranayama, Soham breath Abhyasa

It will vanish.

29. Draw Me

I can come near to you,

But you must draw me

By your faith and devotion.

I can enthrone in your heart,

But you must remove the weeds

Of impurity in your heart.

30. Bolt not the Heart's Door

The doctor came with medicines, etc.

To treat the patient

He was standing at the door,

But the patient bolted the door from inside.

Will the patient be benefited? No.

Even so the Guru came to the aspirant

To give spiritual instructions

But the aspirant did not pay any attention.

He was self-sufficient and heedless

He bolted the door of his heart,

And so he was not benefitted like the patient.

31. Spiritualise

Spiritualise and ascend

March on your return journey

To the abode of Eternal Bliss

Fill every atom with Divine Glory

Power and Light and Love

Banish all darkness and ignorance

Shine with Divine Splendour.

The Gun' is the ladder

To lift you to the peak of perfection

Serve your Guru wet with Bhakti

You will obtain his grace.

And reach the goal of life.

He removes snares and pitfalls

He beats and drives away the big devil Ahamkar

He removes darkness of ignorance

He illumines the heart with the lamp of wisdom

He annihilates Maya

O aspirant! Worship the feet of Guru always

Herein lies your Salvation.

3. Guru Like Mother

The child in the womb gives a kick

To the mother.

But the mother does not beat the child

As soon as it emerges from the womb.

She nurses and caresses the child.

Even so the Guru behaves like the mother.

Even when the disciples go astray.

4. Guru and Upanishads

Guru is Sun

Upanishads are the eyes.

For seeing objects

You need sun and eyes.

Even so for attaining wisdom

You need the Grace of Guru

And help of the Upanishads.

5. Blessed Guru's Feet

Just as the Chatak bird looks for Swati drops

The Chakori bird for the moon,

The Chakravaka for the sun,

The Hamsa for the stem of the Lotus,—

So also the aspirant looks to the feet of Sadguru

Just as the drowning man looks to the shore,

The man caught up in the forest at night for the light,

The man pelted by rain for the shelter,—

So also the aspirant looks to the feet of Sadguru

Just as the chaste wife looks to her husband,

The iron-filings to the magnet,
The running river to the sea,
So also the aspirant looks to the feet of his Guru.

Jaya Guru.

Guru's Grace is boundless

The Gum blessed me

He filled my heart with bliss

He showed me the path

He removed many pitfalls and snares

He elevated and inspired me.

He released me

From bondage of the wheel of birth and death.

8. Personal Guru

A neophyte must have a personal Guru first

He cannot have God as Guru to begin with.

He must have a pure mind

He must have ethical perfection

He must be intensely virtuous.

He must be above body-consciousness

Then alone can he have God as Guru.

9. Spark and a Raw Aspirant

A little spark came from the fire

Its potency, its characteristics, its nature,

Is this possible?

Finds faults and superimposes many defects on him.

He misses the goal and falls into pits.

Let me die of hunger,

Let me be poisoned or crucified,

Let my body be cut to pieces,

Let people come to stab or cut my throat,

Let me remain without any one for help,

Let thunderbolt fall upon my head,

Let me be thrown into the sea,

There is no fear in my heart, no more,

I have powdered Death, Maya and its effects.

I am the Immortal Soul, Sivoham, Sivoham!

All is One;

All is Sivananda.

8. Look and Find Me

Look at the cup of tea,

There you will find me.

Look at the Sun,

There I am.

Look at a flower,

There you will find me.

Look at a river,

There I am.

Look at the fire,

There you will find me.

9. I Am Siva

The whole world is my body

The rivers are my arteries

The ocean is my bladder

Sun and moon are my eyes

The mountains are my bones

Ganga flows from my head.

Africa and South America are my legs

England is my head

Germany and Canada are my breast

I dance on the waves of ocean

I am Siva, I am Siva

Sivoham, Sivoham.

10. Siva, The Source

This world is a straw for me.

It has no attraction for me.

It is quite valueless for me.

I am the Infinite Ocean of Consciousness.

Countless worlds rise and fall in me.

My effulgence is ablaze.

In the sun and the moon.

My beauty is shining in all women.

Charming scenery, landscapes,

Flowers, rainbow and Himalayan snow-clad peaks.

See! Siva is everywhere.

He is the home of all worlds.

He is the source for light, wisdom and beauty.

(Published in "Peace" September 1955)

Yama is terribly afraid of me

Chidananda Rupa Sivoham Sivoham.

12. Vedantic Hill

I stand on the heights of the Vedantic hill.

I entered the heart of Bhuma or the Infinite Wisdom.

SIVA'S WISDOM

1. Four Types of Disciples

The best disciple is like petrol or aviation spirit;

Even from a great distance

He will instantly react to the spark of the Guru's Upadesh.

The second class is like the camphor;

A touch awakens his inner spirit

And kindles the fire of spirituality in him.

The third class is like coal;

The Guru has to take great pains

In order to awaken the spirit in him

The fourth class is like plantain stem;

No effort is of any avail over him.

Whatever the Guru may do, he remains cold and inert.

Be not like the plantain-stem disciple;

Try to be the petrol disciple,
Or at least the camphor disciple.

Half a dozen monkeys sat on a mango tree

And discussed certain things.

One monkey said, "Now listen to me,

People say that man descended from us.

This is not at all true.

The very idea is a disgrace for us.

No monkey ever divorced his wife.

No monkey ever starved his children.

No monkey ever abandoned his children.

No monkey smokes, gambles, drinks and dances in a club

No monkey suffers from syphilis and takes 606 injection

No monkey marries a fourth wife at 80.

No monkey takes another monkey's life

With a gun or knife or atom bomb

Be quite sure that he did not descend from us

Believe me friends

Darwin is incorrect in his statement.

Chapter Eighteen

WISDOM THROUGH STORIES

1. Story of Two Disciples-I

A Teacher said to his disciples,

"Here are two pigeons,

Take one each and kill it

In a place where nobody sees you."

One took it to a forest

And killed it in a place where there was none to see him.

The other was wise enough

He saw the pigeon seeing him through its eyes

He returned back to the teacher with the pigeon.

He felt that Aham is always there

To witness the act.

He said to the teacher,

"I cannot find a place where anybody does not see me.

The silent witness is everywhere present.

I felt the law's presence everywhere.

2. The story of Two Disciples—II

A teacher said to his disciples

"Here are two plantain fruits.

He felt the omnipresence of God

He returned to the teacher with the fruit.

3. Raja Janaka and Pundits

Some Pundits criticised Raja Janaka.

"Raja Janaka is a worldly man

How can he be a Jnani or a sage?"

Raja Janaka wanted to teach them a lesson

He called all Pundits

And gave them a very good feast

Many tasty preparations were served

All the Pundits were rejoicing.

They saw a sword hanging above their heads

The sword was tied by means of a hair.

They all trembled

They all mixed everything and ate hurriedly.

They came to the Durbar

Raja Janaka asked

"O Pundits, what all things you ate today?"

Were they all nice according to your taste?

The Pundits replied,

"Our minds were on hair only

We do not know anything

We did not relish anything"

Janaka said,

"O Pundits! Similar is the state of my mind

My mind is fixed on Brahman alone

I do not know anything of this world."

The Pundits put down their heads in shame

They now realised the state of a Jivanmukta.

4. Compare Ramayana and Bharatam

A teacher asked the students

"Compare Ramayana and Bharatam"

One student said,

"There are 4 brothers in Ramayana,

There are 5 brothers in Bharatam"

Another said,

"Each brother had a wife in Ramayana,

The five Pandavas had one wife Draupadi."

A third said,

"Book Ramayana has a black cover

Bharatam has a blue cover."

A fourth said,

"Sri Rama lived in the forest for 12 years

The Pandavas lived in seclusion for 13 years."

A fifth said,

"Ravana was destroyed through SthreeIshana (desire for woman),

Duryodhana was destroyed through Land Ishana. (desire for land)"

The teacher praised the fifth student
And gave him a gold medal.
Annihilate the Ishanas three
And attain Bliss Eternal
This is the essential teaching of all scriptures.

5. A Poor Man and Kubera

A poor man went to a forest,
And met a Rishi.
The Rishi gave the poor man Kubera Mantra,
For attaining wealth.
The poor man repeated the Mantra.
Kubera appeared before the poor man,
And said "Ask me any boon"
The poor man said,
"Give me four seers of bran for my cow"

The poor man ought to have asked

"Give me Moksha, give me great wealth."

Even so some devotees who meditate

Ask God to give petty things of the world.

O man! Ask God to give you devotion,

Wisdom, Light and Moksha.

Care not for trivial mundane things.

6. A King and the Court Pundit

A king said to his Court Pundit

"Bring a man who is blissful here and there also.

Bring another man who is miserable here and there also.

Bring a third man who is happy here and miserable there

Bring a fourth man who is miserable here and happy there."

The Pundit was in a great dilemma,

His intelligent daughter helped him

"Take this sage before the king

He is happy here and there also.

Take this beggar before him

He is miserable here and miserable after his death also.

Take this wicked rich man before him

He is happy here but miserable in hell after his death.

Take this ascetic before him

Who has emaciated his body?

He is miserable here but happy there in heaven"

The Pundit gained strength now

He took the four people before the king

The king was quite satisfied now.
