

THE GLORIOUS IMMORTAL ATMAN . . .

Swami Sivananda

SRI SWAMI SIVANANDA

Born on the 8th September, 1887, in the illustrious family of Sage Appayya Dikshitar and several other renowned saints and savants, Sri Swami Sivananda had a natural flair for a life devoted to the study and practice of Vedanta. Added to this was an inborn eagerness to serve all and an innate feeling of unity with all mankind.

His passion for service drew him to the medical career; and soon he gravitated to where he thought that his service was most needed. Malaya claimed him. He had earlier been editing a health journal and wrote extensively on health problems. He discovered that people needed right knowledge most of all; dissemination of that knowledge he espoused as his own mission.

It was divine dispensation and the blessing of God upon mankind that the doctor of body and mind renounced his career and took to a life of renunciation to qualify for ministering to the soul of man. He settled down at Rishikesh in 1924, practised intense austerities and shone as a great Yogi, saint, sage and Jivanmukta.

In 1932 Swami Sivananda started the Sivanandashram. In 1936 was born The Divine Life Society. In 1948 the Yoga-Vedanta Forest Academy was organised. Dissemination of spiritual knowledge and training of people in Yoga and Vedanta were their aim and object. In 1950 Swamiji undertook a lightning tour of India and Ceylon. In 1953 Swamiji convened a 'World Parliament of Religions'. Swamiji is the author of over 300 volumes and has disciples all over the world, belonging to all nationalities, religions and creeds. To read Swamiji's works is to drink at the Fountain of Wisdom Supreme. On 14th July, 1963 Swamiji entered Mahasamadhi.

PUBLISHERS' NOTE

The keen and wholehearted interest that Sri Swami Sivanandaji Maharaj has taken in the moulding of the young, from the very early days of his spiritual ministry, is well known. During the days of his propaganda tours, he used to give preference to schools and colleges for lecturing and for demonstration of Yoga exercises, etc.

During his epochal All India Tour, Sri Swamiji visited every University in India and addressed the students. A single incident reveals his heart. He was addressing the students of the Andhra University at Waltair; someone reminded him that a huge crowd was awaiting his arrival at the Town Hall for a considerable time and that he ought to go there. "Let them wait. These students are more important to me; and I must serve them to my satisfaction," he said.

He and he alone has given practical shape to the universal belief that the youth is the hope of the nation and that the students are the leaders and rulers of tomorrow. He declares "The spiritual seed must be sown while people are young."

This book is a treasure for the young.

PREFACE

One day a little girl Meenoo wrote a letter to our Gurudev Sri Swami Sivanandaji Maharaj. She shared the good news that she had been promoted from Grade 4 to 5 and asked for His blessings. She also wrote that her brother was very naughty. Sri Gurudev promptly replied with His blessings and said "You write that your brother is very naughty. Children are always naughty. The naughty children become later on very intelligent. Are you also naughty?" He also advised her to eat well, study well, play well, behave well and obey her parents, for God to be kind to her and fulfill her wishes. Such was the child-like heart of Gurudev with children.

This book is a beautiful compilation of such loving and inspiring communion between Cherubic Children and their Beloved God Sri Gurudev. It is also a treasure trove of Worshipful Gurudev's illuminating messages for little angels and their suardian angels i.e. parents and teachers.

Enjoy reading and learning.

May Gurudev's grace be upon all of us!

SHORT LECTURES PREPARED

BY SWAMI SIVANANDA FOR CHILDREN

(During May and June, 1953, a number of young students and children underwent training at the Yoga- Vedanta Forest University under the direct guidance of H. H. Sri Swami Sivanandaji Maharaj.

Every day during the Satsanga these children were asked by Sri Swamiji to deliver short lectures. To the youngest of them- between the ages of 5 and & he himself prepared short lectures containing the essence of his teachings, to be memorised and delivered. The effect on the audience was electric. And the little ones gained that self-confidence which would be invaluable for them in later life. Here are some of the lectures which Swamiji taught the young ones. This is a novel method of training children which teachers and parents might well adopt.)

I

OM! Ladies and Gentlemen,

Realise God and be happy for ever. This is my short lecture today.

II

OM! Children of Light,

Bliss and be free forever. This is my short lecture today.

CHILDREN'S SIVANANDA

(Master Kamal Kumar, New Delhi)

The short talk which I am going to give you today is about Swami Sivanandaji and his Ashram.

I am a small boy and I can't express the ideas nicely. But I will tell you what I feel about Gurudev and his Ashram.

To me Swamiji is God Himself. I love him, adore him and respect him. He is a kind and loving saint. Even to small boys like me he is very kind. He pours his kindness and love. I see here, everyone goes to him and gets his divine blessings.

I have many letters written in Swami's own handwriting. I keep them as my costly treasure.

My mother says I must have done some great Punya to get so much attention, kindness and blessings from a great, holy saint like Gurudev.

Every saint here is kind and helpful.

I do not want to go back to Delhi soon. I want to stay here for some more days. I am feeling very sad as I am going tomorrow.

But I am sure that Swamiii will bless me so that I can grow up and become an automobile engineer and earn a lot of money with which I wish to build Swamiji a nice big beautiful Ashram.

(A brief talk delivered by the young boy aged 11 years at the Sivanandashram)*

SECTION ONE LETTERS

A few letters from some of Sri Swami Sivanandajis "young" disciples and his replies- Expressive of Sri Swamiji's child-like nature, easy accessibility, and great solicitude (in his own words) "to sow the spiritual seed in the young."

Om. Swamiji,

I have not written for a long time as I was busy. Please help me in my studies by praying to God. I also pray intensely. I am going to the convent. Thank you for the riddles. I have one more to ask. That is, "what can you swallow and that thing you swallow can swallow you" It is raining here. We are all well here. Please excuse me for not writing to you. I feel guilty. Please tell me a way that I can learn and remember my lessons well.

Yours devoted,
Vijayalakshmi.

10th December, 1956.

Sri Vijayalakshmi,
Hyderabad.
Blessed Self,

Salutations. Om Namō Bhagavate Vasudevaya.

You ought to be getting ready for the Exams. Here I am praying for your success. You are such a brilliant child of the Lord, Vijayalakshmi. You will always come out successful in all Exams.

Your mind is like a big Library. If you want to make sure you will always be able to get the book you want, without any difficulty, what will you do? You will take a deep interest in it. You will keep the books in good order. You will group them nicely. You will not allow dust and cobwebs to hide the titles of the books. You will let plenty of light into the library. And, you will prevent mischievous children from entering the library and spoiling the arrangement.

This is what you should do with your mind, if you wish to have excellent memory. You must take a deep interest in all the subjects you study Or think of You will study well and assimilate your lessons. You will clearly understand them. You will not allow confusion to enter the mind. You will group all your ideas and register them properly in the mind. You will not allow wrong thoughts and evil thoughts to enter the mind. These are the dust and dirt for the mind. You will not allow cobwebs to grow in your mind. You will never neglect the hidden talents and you will keep your intelligence in constant use (then cobwebs won't grow): Japa of God's Name is the Light for the mind. You will have it in plenty. Vanity, anger, greed, bad company, evil habits, these are the mischievous children that ruin the library (your mind). You will keep them away from you.

This is the way to develop and have very good memory.

Your riddles are all very very nice. I am going to publish them all in a book.

May God bless you, Sri Bharati and parents!

With regards, Prem and OM.

Thy own Self,
Sivananda.

The greatest achievement in life is the achievement of the tranquil state of mind which is free from Raga and Dwesha.

In the tranquil and serene state of mind is heard the sharp and shrill voice of the Lord, seated within the heart. Hear that voice by purifying the lower nature and be guided by it. You will become blessed.

Stick to the feet of Lord. You will get everything and Moksha. Seek, find, enter and rest.

May God bless you!

I have received your letter. Thank you very much. I am so glad that you remember me well. How kind and great of you to have written to me. I am very sorry that you did not receive my last letter which I wrote wishing you for your birthday. My mother is better now. I am also by your blessings keeping good health.

I have my annual exams, in December. I am reading well. I got 1st rank with 1st mark in all my subjects in my last exam. I am learning Sanskrit in my school. I am sorry that I missed the birthday celebrations in September. It was due to mother's illness. I have not got the book in which my letters were printed which you promised to send me. On Sth September when I was meditating I saw your face inside a round ring. Outside the ring were rays like those of sun's. What does this mean? This is what I had written in my last letter. My Dear Lord Gurudev,

I had no opportunity to visit my Lord's feet for blessings. I used to pray to and remember you even at my school time at Mt. Abu.

Whenever my Mummy and Daddy used to visit your feet, I used to be in school, and my school is having holidays from Dec. 6th to March 6th.

This time I have requested my Daddy to take me for my Lord's Darshan.

Now let me introduce myself to thee. I am the elder brother of Bhaskar Kumar and little Sudha. I am anxiously waiting for the holiday to meet you Lord.

My age is fourteen and I am studying in standard 6th at St. Mary's High School, Mt. Abu.

Gurudeva I am sure next vacation I'll be able to visit you for your blessings. May I hope that you are keeping good health!

Bhaskar Kumar at Kerala and Sudha at Nadiad are studying well. And Mummy and Daddy are also well.

I had the opportunity to visit all the shrines and temples of South with my Daddy on Dec. 7th.

Swami Nirmalanandaji and Swami Ramanandaji were here on their way to South for two days. We had a nice Satsang with them in our little temple in our house.

Waiting for your blessings.

Daily I listen to thy songs, Kirtan and speech.

6th March 1958.

Dear Swamiji,

I am a young boy of thirteen years, and am studying in a good school. The first question I ask your highness is: how to concentrate, because whenever I sit down to study, my mind begins to wander and I cannot concentrate.

If I am in the house I study for half-an-hour, and then I go to drink a glass of water even if I am not thirsty. If I am at school I go to the bathroom and waste five or ten minutes.

war I shall be very grateful if you will let me know some idea how to concentrate. This is my first letter to your holiness and I hope to get a reply.

Thanking you,

Rotate the mind on His feet, His silk Pitamber, His ear rings, Crown, garland, flute.

Then come down to his feet. Close your eyes. Take rest. Then start the process again. Do this for five minutes in the morning and at night. Repeat OM Krishna when you practice concentration and other times also. You will gradually develop concentration.

May Lord bless you with health, peace, success and concentration.

I'll follow all the instructions that You wrote to me. I got the Ramayan from Uncle Vasudev. I write my Mantra daily. This month, I don't know is it due to my laziness or to the weather that caused me to sleep and the whole month I did not wake up early.

In this letter I enclose 2 rupees and my monthly Spiritual Diary. This month the Diary is not so nice.

I stopped eating sweet and sweet things, I eat less than usual. I stopped eating rubbish that is sold outside in the streets. I reduced my dinner.

Swamiji, I'll come to Your Ashram as soon as possible. I am thinking of coming to your Ashram during my 2 months vacation, that is if I get promotion.

This month I saw one movie. From tomorrow I'll wake up in the morning every day.

Swamiji I owe you a thousand thanks for writing such a letter to guide me to the right path of Divine Light. Everybody in my house was surprised at seeing the hand-written letter, by you.

I Am trying all my best to get my Asanas photos taken out and if I can, I'll send them to you as soon as possible.

32. IN WHOM SHALL I TAKE REFUGE

Hong Kong, 1st May 1958.

Jai Hind

Dear Gurudev,

Om Nano Bhagavate Sivanandaya. May Thy Blessings be upon me. Its long I haven't written you a letter.

In this letter I enclose my spiritual Diary for the month of April. It's better than that of the last month.

I'll try all my best to improve.

Swamiji, my examinations are approaching soon, and I'm going to start studying and revising for my exams, so I hope you will Bless me (Humko Assisa Karo) to get promotion and also get a good position. If Lam promoted I can come to your Ashram and besides that I want to have a good report to show to my relatives. (Please Bless me.)

Swamiji, I hope You will clear this doubt of mine: In the Gita, Lord Krishna says that if we take refuge in Him we will be freed from any danger concerning the world. And in the Ramayana, Lord Rama says that those who take refuge in Him are safe. So I don't know if I must take refuge in all (Lord Rama, Lord Krishna, Lord Shiva, Lord Hari.) and repeat their names or have I to take refuge in one. I wish You will let me know and clear out my doubt. A thousand thanks to Thee.

Swamiji, for the Books for children which Sri Jagdish received from You, can I get these monthly from Thee or must I write to the Divine Life in Durban. I hope you'll let me know soon because I am eager to read them if I have spare time. I enclose one rupee.

As I have nothing to say and no nice words to Thank Thee so much, I end this letter with Prem and OM.

Your Humble Servant,
Indru K. Daswani

Glorious, Immortal Atman,

Your kind letter.

Your spiritual diary is very good. Kindly keep this diary regularly and send it to me at the end of every month.

Study your class lessons well. Do your best.

Pray. You will get success in the exam. May Lord bless you with health and success in the examination.

Take refuge in one Lord and repeat His Name.

Rama, Krishna, Siva, Vishnu, and Devi are one.

I shall send you books. Received your one rupee. Thanks.

Early to bed, early to rise makes one healthy, wealthy and wise. Work is worship.

Health is wealth. A lazy man is beggar's elder brother. Haste makes waste. What cannot be cured must be endured.

"Mint money. Attain power. Kill your neighbour and take his property". This is the philosophy of the materialists. This is the philosophy of the devils.

"Renounce everything. Serve humanity, Meditate and realise" This is the philosophy of Hinduism. You want immortality, wisdom and eternal bliss. Is it not? This you will find in God. Therefore realise God. May Lord bless you.

33. A SPIRITUAL EXPERIENCE

Ambattur P. 0;
22nd May 58

OM Namō Bhagavate Vasudevaya

Dearest Father of mine,

I prostrate before thee with my humble salutations and respects for my divine father. May thy blessings ever continue to shower upon me, and may I never lose thy divine grace which is very generous towards everyone. Thou art the Living God' of our family and all the world. To be at thy holy Lotus Feet is to be in heaven and tasting its pleasures. When I grow up I will come to stay permanently at thy holy feet in Ananda Kutir. I am thinking of becoming a Medical doctor, because that is the profession by which we can be of any use, and serve, humanity. When I am an experienced doctor, I will come to our lovely Ashram and do service there. Beloved Gurudev, may your child ask this dream of hers to be fulfilled and attained?

Two or three days back, I dreamt a wonderfu dream about thee. I dreamt that you had come to our house in Bombay. We were having a great feast together. Suddenly after much talk, I asked thee: "Swamiji, I will come to Ananda Kutir and settle there?" You said to me: "It is not very necessary because, I am always with you." But do come there, it is very good.

Swamiji, I do not understand at all this dream.
Please tell me what it means dear, father.

Swamiji, I have written a prayer to thee, which! fervently; hope, you will answer.

Your Child.
Periya Chella Kutti.

34. TAKE ME TO THY LOTUS FEET

O Lord of the Abode of Bliss,
O Avatara of the Lord of the Flute,
O Master so great and good,
I prostrate at thy feet.

O Mighty Ocean of pity and love,
O All-merciful one,
O Transformer of evil into good,
My salutations to thee.

As Krishna was the apple of the eye
Of His mother, beloved Devaki,
So, too, thou art of the whole humanity,
O Lord, Great Sivananda.

Forgive me please for my sins,
I prostrate before thee,
I take refuge at thy holy feet,
Says thy child, Periya Chella Kutti.

Salutations and adorations.

Thy very kind letter to hand. I was indeed immensely pleased to go through its contents. May your sincere desire to become a doctor and to settle down here permanently be fulfilled by the grace of the Lord.

When the mind becomes purified, one gets inspiring and ennobling dreams. Your dream shows that your mind is very pure. It is aspiring for higher experiences of bliss and peace. It also indicates that you very much desire to come to Ananda Kutir and serve here.

I have accepted your poem. It is very nicely composed. I am glad to note that you are so able to express your thoughts both in prose and poetry. You have the grace of Mother Saraswati. May She bless you with more knowledge and illumination.

Be regular in your prayers, Japa and Kirtan. Read spiritual books for a short time daily. Serve elders with faith and devotion.

May Lord bless you with health, peace, prosperity, success in your studies, bliss and spiritual evolution.

With regards, Prem and Om,

I also received your books, and I almost finished reading them. I thank you very much for them. Please send me some more monthly.

I did not get up sometimes, and I seldom did Mala at nights. I stop drinking tea, and now I always drink milk. I am trying to stop fighting and quarrelling. I am also trying to eat vegetables now. I read prayer since you sent me the prayer book. I also read Ramayana.

In this letter I enclose 5 rupees, Yoga photos, my April spiritual diary.

Since I have nothing else to write I enclose the letter with Prem and Om.

Received your Yogasana photos. You are doing Asanas beautifully. Be regular in doing Asanas. You will have good health. Your spiritual diary is kept up nicely. As you do not fight with the boys you will enjoy peace now. You will have more energy.

Do not shut the doors and windows of the room in which you sleep at night. Do not cover up your head while sleeping. You can breathe fresh air, even at night. If you have good health you can work hard. Bathe daily in cold water. Health means happiness. Good health is far better than wealth.

Do not eat anything in the morning before you pray. Why has God created us? God has created us in order to worship Him, love and serve Him.

May Lord bless you, family and all!

Glorious, Immortal Atman,

Your kind letter and resolve forms. Your resolves are very nice. Stick to the resolves. Try to get up in the early morning. Pray. Do Japa and practice Asanas regularly.

Go to bed early - No pains, no disease. Go to bed late - Doctors and pills. Do you know how to swim?

Do your best, your very best, with right good will. This is a golden rule. This is the wisest way.

When you meet any one in the morning, say,
'Good morning', Sir. Say "Good afternoon", if you meet someone after one O'

SECTION TWO

MESSAGES FOR CHILDREN

1. MESSAGE FOR CHILDREN'S

PARK INAUGURATION

Children of Light,

With immense pleasure I send this message to you on the auspicious occasion of the inauguration of Children's Park in the colony of Kole-Kalyan Govt. Housing Tenants, Bombay.

Children are the architects of the future world. They are the builders of humanity. It is the most sacred task of the parents to mould their lives in accordance with the sublime Indian tradition of the spiritual aspiration and God-realisation. The seed of spiritual values should be sown in the young hearts, and the conditions should be made favourable for its sprouting and steady growth by the exercise of proper control and discipline, mixed with the warmth of love and affection, and the tree shall blossom forth the flowers of brotherhood, cosmic love, amiability, peace, Bliss, Beauty and Perfection.

Dear Children! You are the hope of the Motherland. You should always think of the goal of life and live to attain the goal. The goal of life is God-realisation. Follow the footsteps of great sages and saints. Emulate the ideal of great men and women.

Speak sweetly. Speak lovingly. Speak gently. Speak forcibly. Speak no evil. See no evil. Hear no evil. Think no evil. You will shine as Yogis and Saints.

Study the Ramayana, Mahabharat, Bible, Quoran, Gita, Upanishad, and the lives of saints and sages. Keep good company. Develop faith in God and the power of His Name. Practise Japa and Meditation daily. Take Satwic food. Repent for your mistakes. Admit your faults freely. Never try to hide your faults by lame excuses or by uttering falsehood.

Obey the laws of nature. Take plenty of physical exercises daily. Be cheerful. Be bright. Be bold. Play, jump, dance and sing. Build up a strong and healthy body. You will be able to serve humanity and attain God-realization through a strong mind in a strong body.

Serve your parents, elders and teachers. Be obedient. Be humble. Be gentle. Be noble. Be truthful. Be pure. Love all. Develop adaptability. Move amicably with all.

May Lord bless you all with radiant health, long life, peace, prosperity and Immortal Bliss.

Thy Own Self,
Sivananda.

2. EDUCATION OF THE CHILD

If the child is trained properly from the very beginning, then you will have very few problems later on. You will have very few occasions to chastise the child. All good Samskaras should be implanted in the child, since it learns to talk.

When the child is born, the parents should feel that the Lord has graciously entrusted to their care the greatest treasure on earth. No sacrifice is too much if that would enable them to mould the child properly.

3 When the child is somewhat mischievous, as all children are, the mother frightens it. Oh, ghost will come, she tells the child if it does not sleep quickly. This is not proper. Any type of fear element must be kept away from the child as virulent poison. The child must not know what fear is.

3. BE HELPFUL TO THE YOUNGSTER

The child has an inquisitive nature. It wants to know. All knowledge is acquired by man only through this inquisitive nature. Its mischievousness is also a manifestation of this inquisitiveness only. It wants to find out; it wants to know. When the child is awake at night, it goes on asking various questions. You get annoyed! No; you should take immense delight in answering the questions intelligently so that the child will know, and satisfy its curiosity. Of course, you could always keep away subjects that are forbidden to children, in an intelligent manner.

The baby may not understand the sublimity of your words, but you should always sing the most sublime lullabies, entertain it with inspiring stories, and avoid all negative thought, word and action in its presence. You should always be positive and spiritual in your approach towards the baby.

The parents must never quarrel or speak ill of anybody before the child. The child must be away from vulgar manners or indecent utterings. You should be all encouragement, love and kindness. You should never show a wary face, nor get annoyed or disgusted with it.

4. MIX DISCIPLINE WITH LOVE

This does not mean that you should dote over the child. When the child grows into a boy or a girl, when it has learnt to walk, to talk and to play, you should mix discipline with love. Even then do not frighten the boy; nor should you instill any kind of negative emotion into it. Lovingly and intelligently you should try to maintain discipline, and you should make the boy understand the glory of a disciplined life. If your earlier training has been good, you will find even in his boyhood your son needs no chastising. He will readily obey you. And, if you take care to see that he chooses the right type of companions, you will have no problem at all.

The very first words you teach the child should be the Lord's name. The very first idea that you put into the boy's mind should be spiritual and moral. When the child is able to sit up and talk, you should train it to sing divine hymns with closed eyes at the family altar. To the young boy you should teach the glory of a spiritual life, the purpose of morality, the principles of cleanliness, hygiene and health.

5. UNDERSTAND THE CHILD'S PSYCHOLOGY

Even a problem-child can be moulded properly if your approach is the right one. The problem-child is essentially a creation of the parents. Obstinance should be met by firmness spiced with love; ignorance should be met by knowledge coated with compassion; idiocy should be countered with intelligence coupled with kindness. Let the child's heart know that you are sincere, eager and earnest in your attempt to mould him into an ideal citizen, a glorious manhood dedicated to the good of the world. You will succeed.

It is for the parents to adapt with the child; not for the child to adapt with the parents. In most cases, disharmony between the youth and the parents is a direct result of torturing and shocking the mind of the child or the adolescent by arbitrary behaviour of the parents. In many cases the child receives no real love from the parents, except mere attachment grown out of constant association. The parents think they love the child who is the apple of their eyes, but they really do not. There is a complete disregard to understand the mind of the youngsters, lack of sympathy as sought for by them. In the name of the child's welfare the parents often permanently break up its tender heart. By chastising a child before outsiders the problem is by far aggravated than remedied. An unhappy companionship of the parents, is often a serious menace for the future home of the adolescent. Many things which the child hears in its early age are implanted in the young mind, but when the years bring maturity there is a severe shock, which shatters the reverence for the parents. Therefore, the parents should never utter any vulgar or obscene word before the child.

The parents must be extra-ordinarily careful in dealing with boys or girls of eleven to fifteen years old.

Kindly do not forget that only if you are ethical, moral and spiritual, your children will also become so. If you neglect the fundamental virtues of life, your children will imitate you and become worst materialists. Through proper effort you can surely train your children into ideal citizens, leaders, reformers, Yogis and Jnanis.

May the blessings of the Lord be upon you all!

6. REAL EDUCATION

8. RECONSTRUCTION OF CIVILIZATION

Atma Swaroop,

It gives me joy to meet you all and sing the Lord's names amidst you.

How to build up our New India. The craftman plans the shape before he works at it. Similarly we have to build up our country and plan before we work at it. If we are strong and healthy we would be considered worthy citizens by others also. If we have no health we are worth nothing.

India' means not merely trees and leaves or anything external but it really means you all.

In Ramayan for instance we find that Kaikeyi asked for boons in order to make Bharat the king, and also for sending away Rama to the forest. But Rama never refused to obey his mother and was particular that his father kept his promise. We have to learn, thus, that we have always to obey the orders of our parents. This is another way of preparing ourselves for 'New India'! One who knows the ins and outs of a particular road will be able to guide us, and why do we obey them? We obey them because they only know what is really good for us. So we have to do the following to be able to build up a New India.

(1) We have to obey our superiors without question.

(2) We have always to keep our promise and we have always to speak the truth.

The fruit of a tree is like the tree. It has every resemblance. You have come from God similarly. You are the fruits and the flowers from the same God. And so you have also to behave and live in a divine godly manner, pure and sacred. God is kind, so you have to be kind to others, even to animals. If anyone says unkind words to you, please don't answer back, but tolerate and forgive.

When we go on a horse and the horse falls sick, we can't use it further. So also we have to keep our bodies fit and in order to keep it fit we have to do some exercise or other daily. We must also do Kirtan and Bhajan daily. Do you not wash your clothes daily? To wash the impurities of the mind we have to do Bhajan and Kirtan daily.

I speak as your humble sevak and 'Hitkanshi'. Whatever I say, I say by way of friendship, and you have to act upon it after hearing me. Please accept this as a gift and make it your own. The world is filled with 'Namarupas' and it keeps changing. At the end it gets finished. Whatever we see through Indriyas is not 'Shaswat' nor 'Avinashi'. It is Nashvar. Secondly, we have come as human beings and our relationships with others is not lasting and we are ourselves not permanent. Everyone wants happiness but foolishly we go in for happiness that brings in sorrow.

Through all external objects of the world, we try to obtain happiness in vain indeed. We shall be able to obtain that what is Peaceful'. When we are able to understand the truth of this. It is certain that everything will leave us and we shall also leave them. This world is a bazaar of sorrow. It is 'Anitya'.

We have been blessed with intelligence, conscience and discrimination. We should not go to that happiness that gives us only one anna of happiness and fifteen annas of sorrow. Perfect happiness is to be attained within us and not through external objects.

When we scratch a wound that causes itching, we have a pleasant feeling, no doubt, and it also gives momentary relief. But in reality it causes us harm. Such indeed is our state. We are in reality 'Anadamaya Swaroop'. Realise this through Japa, Prayer and Kirtan.

With regards, Prem & Om

Your Own Atman,
Sivananda.

9. CHARACTER: THE FOUNDATION OF DIVINE LIFE

The future greatness of the students will depend entirely upon the thoughts they think now and the deeds they perform. Nobler the thoughts and nobler the deeds, the greater the destiny they reap. The character of a person depends upon the quality of the thoughts he holds in his mind and the mental pictures that constantly engage his conscious attention. If your thoughts are of a base nature, you will have an undesirable character; if you entertain noble thoughts, sublime ideas and permit into your mind the entry of holy pictures, you will have a powerful and magnetic personality and character. You will be a centre of joy, power and peace.

The road to greatness lies through the cultivation of virtues, and character is the very basis of Divine Life. If you assimilate in yourself the character of the great lives and of the great saints and sages, you would yourself rise to the very heights of eminence to which they rose. Ethical culture will result in ethical perfection. If you study Yoga Sutras you will find a clear description of the powers - that manifest by observance of the practices of Ahimsa, Satyam, Asteya, Brahmacharya and Aparigraha. All the subtle occult powers roll under the feet of the ethically perfect and developed persons.

Therefore, distinguish yourselves by the development of your personal character. May you all become great moral and spiritual heroes!

(A Message sent to the new journal published by Meernaidoo T. Somanuah, Mauritius.

10. REGULARITY AND PUNCTUALITY

Perfect discipline can only be maintained by regularity and punctuality. There cannot be any success without discipline. The mind is terribly afraid when it hears the terms: 'discipline, regularity'. That man who is irregular and does his actions by fits and starts cannot reap the fruits of his efforts.

Learn the lessons from nature. Mark how the season rotates regularly! Mark how the sun rises and sets, how the monsoon comes, how the flowers blossom, how the fruits and vegetable crop up, how the revolution of the moon and earth takes place, how the days and nights, weeks and months roll on! Nature is your Guru and guide.

Regularity and punctuality and discipline go hand in hand. They are inseparable. College and school students in India imitate the West in dress, style, smoking, etc. These are all vile imitations.

Have you imbibed from them the important virtues, such as, punctuality and regularity? See how an Englishman adjusts his time to the very second.

Have regular habits in all walks of life. Be regular in going to bed and in rising up early in the morning. Be regular in your meals. Be regular in your studies and physical exercises.

You will have a very successful life. Regularity should be your watch-word. Chalk out a daily routine and stick to it.

11. SINCERITY AND HONESTY

A sincere man who is honest always gets success in his undertakings. He is very much liked by his superiors. Honesty is the best policy in the West but it is a sacred virtue in the East. That man who is endowed with these noble qualifications can penetrate into any region of the world. People will receive him with outstretched hands. Sincere and honest people are very very rare.

A sincere man feels for the troubles of others and tries his level best to alleviate their sufferings. He is very sympathetic. A sincere man is also generous. He is free from crookedness, cheating, diplomacy and double-dealing. There is not a bit of hypocrisy in him. He will not find any difficulty in getting a job anywhere. A sincere man has always the well-being of his master in his mind. A sincere friend, a sincere wife, a sincere son and a sincere servant are gods on earth. There is no virtue greater than sincerity. It should be developed at all costs by one and all.

12. PATIENCE AND PERSEVERANCE

Patience and perseverance are noble qualities that are born of Sattwa. No success either in the material world or in the spiritual path is possible without these qualities. Difficulties do crop up at every stage and these are to be overcome by patient efforts and perseverance. The success of Mahatma Gandhi is due to these qualities. He never gets discouraged by failures. All great persons of the world have achieved greatness, success and eminence through patience and perseverance.

A man of patience always keeps his head cool. He keeps a balanced mind. He is not afraid of failures and difficulties. He finds out methods to strengthen himself. For the practice of concentration of the mind, one should have asinine patience. Many people get discouraged when they encounter some difficulties and give up the work as hopeless. This is very bad. Patience helps a man in the conquest of temper. Never grumble or murmur. Patience gives immense strength.

13. SELF-RELIANCE

Self-reliance is a very important virtue. Self-reliance gives immense internal strength. This is an important qualification for material and spiritual success. The vast majority of persons have got a leaning mentality. Luxurious habits have rendered people very weak. A doctor and a lawyer want servants to help them put on their shoes and stockings. They cannot draw a bucket of water from the well. They cannot walk even a furlong. Now-a-days man depends on others for everything. You must know how to cook your own food. You must give up servants. You must wash your own clothes. You must walk daily to your college or office. Give up the idea of prestige and position. Sir T. Muthuswami Iyer, the late reputed Chief Justice of the Madras High Court, used to walk to the Court. His name is still remembered for his virtue of self-reliance.

14. HEALTH HINTS

(a) Students should not keep their mouths open. Children who constantly keep their mouths open and who snore at night, probably suffer from growth at the back or the nose, and should receive medical attention.

(b) Students should not sit a wrong posture: The posture of a student is important. Too much stooping posture is unhealthy. It leads to myopia or short sightedness, contracts the chest and interferes with breathing. It puts strain on the heart and causes curvature of the spine. It is the duty of teachers and School Medical Officer to correct the wrong postures in students.

(c) Students should not use Flat Desks: The desks should be very slightly inclined. An angle of 15 degrees is sufficient. Flat desk has a tendency to make the children stoop. Hence it should be condemned.

(d) Students should not hanker after harmful dainties. Tea is harmful for children. Sweets such as toffee or chocolates should be sparingly taken.

(e) Students should not use tight garters and stiff corsets: Tight garters are very harmful. Girl-students should never be allowed to wear stiff corsets nor tight garments round the chest or waist, as this interferes with the proper growth and with breathing. borecio

15. MENTAL HYGIENE

If you want to possess good mental health you must be always cheerful. You must cultivate this virtue again and again. Cheerfulness acts as the best or mental tonic. Depression, gloom, cheerlessness corrode the mind. There is intimate connection between the mind and the body. Body is a mould prepared by the mind for its enjoyment. If there is any physical ailment the mind reacts and vice versa. If there is depression you do not have good appetite, you feel very weak, you cannot walk briskly, you cannot do any work with intense attention and application. If there is pain in the physical body, you cannot think properly, you cannot meditate. This is the common experience of all. Practice of Ahimsa, Satyam, Brahmacharya, is necessary for maintaining good mental health. Truth is an honest endeavour to convey a real expression of what has occurred or of what is intending to those around you. The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth can satisfy God and your own heart. Truth cannot be measured by rods and furlongs, minims and ounces. Thought must totally agree with the speech and the speech with the action. This is truth.

Himsa, falsehood, impurity fill the mind with restlessness, impurities, cares, worries and anxieties. You cannot have peace of mind even for a second. How then can there be good mental health where there is no peace of mind.

According to Yoga Vashishta the cause for all diseases is in the mind (Adhi-Vyadhi). If the mind is pure and strong, if the will is strong and irresistible, if the mind is free from cravings and desires and vasanās, you can enjoy a high standard of mental health.

If you are sulky, irritable, greedy and selfish, these bad traits will produce a deleterious effect on your own physical and mental health and will have a definite influence on others. They are also positively harmful to others.

In many cases both mental and physical troubles are due not to inexorable fate or inevitable misfortune. They are destroyed for want, of knowledge and as a consequence of a weak and wrong management of the circumstances of life.

If you wish to have a successful and useful life and good mental health, it is absolutely necessary for you to acquire the virtue of self-control. Life will be a long series of futilities, a succession of follies, if the quality of self-control is absent.

Sattwic food, Japa or recitation of Lord's names, Pranayama, regular meditation, Kirtan or singing Hari's names and His praise, study of inspiring, religious books pave a long way for the attainment of good mental health.

Removal of hatred through cosmic love, service, friendship, mercy, sympathy and compassion, removal of greed through disinterested service, generous acts and charity, removal of pride through humility will help you a great deal in the achievement of good mental health.

Fortitude, forbearance, patience, endurance, balance of mind, keep the mind in a good healthy state. Therefore endeavour to possess these divine virtues.

If there is mental fatigue in college boys on account of too much strain and the study, if there is mental fatigue in merchants on account of business worries, if there is fatigue in officers on account of over work they should take proper rest at once. They should go for a change to the hills or seaside. They should do Pranayama or breathing exercise and take light, wholesome nutritious diet. They should do Japa and Kirtan vigorously and practice easy asanas such as Sarvang, Bhujang, Yoga Mudra, Udiyana, Agnisars, etc.

They can play on the harmonium and sing devotional songs.

Prevention is the most important factor in all problems of mental hygiene. Better education, better upbringing of children, better home conditions and better social surroundings and outlook are all helpful measures in preventive mental hygiene.

Physical health is an important condition of mental health. Strain of any organ, excessive fatigue, and mental strain should be avoided. Your life must be well-regulated and disciplined. You must practise Samyama in all things. Excess of any kind should be avoided. You must stick to the happy, golden medium. Rest is necessary.

Avoid all mental conflicts. Do not interfere in the affairs of others. Have perfect tolerance and broad adaptability. Allow the individuals to grow in their own way. Every man has his own way, his own predilection, his own natural capacity, temperament and outlook. No two men are alike. Endeavour to remove any undesirable and unsocial trait.

Children should be properly moulded by the teachers and parents. They are like malleable metal and like plastic clay. They are highly suggestible. They will do what we tell them to do. They are very imitative. Therefore they will copy our doings. They are eager. They are brave. They fear nothing, and even adverse criticism. If we set before them the path of good life, if we can inspire them with the principles of good physical and mental health and high ideals they will turn out to be good citizens and ideal persons. Every good conscientious teacher should promote a healthy outlook and the sense of well being on the children for whom he is responsible. He himself should be an ideal man. He himself must have the gift of sunshine within if he wishes to make the children brilliant and healthy. He himself must be full of life, light and joy. He must be endowed with divine attributes and high standard of health, vim, vigour and vitality.

09 An unhappy, worried, sickly teacher who is full of private grief's and woes cannot guide the children and lift them up to a high standard of life. He himself needs teaching and education first.

16. HOW TO BECOME RICH

BECOME A SELF-MADE MAN

Become a self-made man, earn your livelihood, touch not a pie from your father's property. Show your manliness, strength and power, it is disgraceful to live on father's earnings. There is a magazine of power within you, you can do and undo things in this world. You can work wonders. Justice Muthuswami Ayer studied, under municipal lanterns. He was very poor, he rose up to a very high position. Work hard, unfold all your faculties, and shine as a dynamic personality.

17. HOW TO WIN FRIENDS?

Be sweet in speech, behave well, be polite, be courteous. Have fair dealings, share what you have with others. Do not argue unnecessarily, do not contradict simply to gain victory. Stick to your promise, serve others when they are sick. Develop a magnetic personality, through meditation and prayer. Hear patiently what others say. When you get a loan of a book, put a wrapper, keep it clean; and return it at the proper time. Do not tell anyone that he is wrong, be generous, be charitable, be kind.

18. BE EVER BUSY

Be ever busy like a bee. Keep the mind ever occupied. Destroy idleness to the root. Idle brain is Satan's workshop. Be regular in Asana, Pranayama, exercise, walking, Baithak. Abandon Tamasic foods, such as garlic, onion, meat, etc Stick to daily programme. Keep a memorandum note book. Take a cold bath in the early morning, offer prayer, do Sandhya, Japa, Swadhyaya and meditation; take honey and lemon juice in the morning; sometimes take Triphala water.

19. MAKE GOOD USE OF MONEY

Persons who have the grace of the Lord, who take recourse to Satsanga, make the best use of money. They build Ashramas, temples, tanks, wells, social institutions, Pathashalas, orphanages, hospitals, etc. They reap high merits here, and enjoy bliss in heaven. Money is meant for charitable purposes; earn and spend the money in charity. This will purify your heart, and lead to the descent of Divine Light. You will earn undying name here.
